

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney General transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

Dear Ms. Reade,

Re: Canada-U.S. Trade Issues Contract - Extension to March 31, 1993

This is to offer you an amendment to the terms of your appointment as an Agent of the Minister of Justice of Canada to provide legal advice on issues related to Canada-U.S. trade, as set out in my letter dated April 24, 1991 (copy attached).

The period of your appointment will be extended to end March 31, 1993.

The total maximum expenditure has been raised by a further U.S. $150,000.

All other terms and conditions will remain the same.

If this amendment is satisfactory to you, please sign this letter in the space provided below and return the original to me. A copy is enclosed for your records.

Yours sincerely,

Leslie S. Holland, Q.C.
General Counsel
